Scholarships are awarded to assist students with their educational expenses. The scholarship committee looks closely at an individual's entire application. The academic record, years of attendance, accomplishments and activities, and personal statements help us gain insight into a student's level of achievement and character. Recipients are requested to provide transcripts and financial aid information each semester.

Payments for family assistance are made directly to the servicing agencies or via gift cards depending on the family's specific need. Additional monitoring is not required.
